Online Studies

START STUDYING AT IU – EVEN WITHOUT A HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMA

WITH A-LEVELS

IU is the first online university to become an official partner of Cambridge Assessment International Education. With this partnership, we offer applicants without a high school diploma the chance to earn a diploma equivalent while already starting their Bachelor's degree courses.

Unlike other diploma pathway programmes, you won't have to finish the A-Levels before you start your studies – now, you can do both.

We'll provide you with the study materials for the final Cambridge exam you'll have to pass in order to get your diploma equivalent and finish your Bachelor's degree. You'll have access to all of the degree course materials as well, so you can work on both things at the same time, at your own pace.

A-LEVELS IN A NUTSHELL

STUDY AT IU

We will provide you with all of the course materials.

RESUME BOOST

Once you pass the exam, you'll have a high school diploma to add to your CV.

2 STUDY TRACKS

Depending on the degree you choose, you'll take courses in the Tech Track or the Business Track.

ONLY PAY FOR THE EXAM

The Pathway courses and materials are included in the price of your degree.

Electives on Campus:

Those elective modules where the minimum number of participants is not reached will not be offered on campus but only online (distance learning). However, IU ensures that there are always electives on campus.

*The module "Internship" can only be chosen within the on campus programme.

ELECTIVES

All of our study programmes offer a wide selection of industry-focused electives for you to choose from. Below you'll find more details on a select number of these courses—for the full list of specialisations available in this programme, please check the Course Schedule.

The electives that are a part of this study programme, are a cluster of courses dedicated to diving deep into a specific topic related to the programme. When choosing an elective, you get to explore a potential future career path, or just develop a strong knowledge base about a topic that particularly interests you.

Students in the 90 ECTS credit programme—in semester 3 of this programme, you'll choose two electives, amounting to 20 ECTS credits. You have a wide range of options to choose from, according to your interests and ambitions. Some of the electives offered are:

BIG DATA

Develop your understanding of data science and data management, and the central concepts and challenges in this fascinating field of study. Using a critical approach, you'll explore the different definitions of big data, and how they all relate to the global business world, wherever its customer information management, sustainable data processing, or working in accordance to international regulations and EU data protection laws. By the end of this specialisation, you'll have a clear understanding of how businesses should handle themselves when it comes to data processing, from different ethical, social, political and financial standpoints.

DATA SCIENCE AND ANALYTICS

With this specialisation, you'll get a clear understanding of how data is collected and used by businesses—the theoretical framework, the scientific methodology, and the various systems for data storage and processing.

In addition, you'll tackle advanced mathematical concepts that are crucial for working with data collection, and look into the ways in which artificial intelligence is used in data analysis, processing and prediction.

IT GOVERNANCE AND SERVICE MANAGEMENT

Build your IT services management skills, and be prepared to tackle the challenges of any IT system. You'll get to know how IT managers comply with corporate laws, IT management best practices and how to develop and maintain an efficient IT infrastructure.

Develop an understanding of how IT managers work with other corporate divisions, how to balance between different stakeholders and demands and how IT can help companies achieve their business goals.

CAREER OUTLOOK

MBA graduates are highly attractive to employers all over the world. From exciting start-ups to large corporate leaders, an MBA from IU will help you find your path to a successful career in international management, all the while focusing on your specialist area.

BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT MANAGER

As a Business Development Manager, you are key to establishing growth of businesses, building business relationship networks, and seeking out new leads. You analyse trends and markets and use your knowledge to advise on market potential for product and companies. Your solid knowledge of finances and investment is a firm basis on which you advise your superiors and clientele.

CONSULTANT

As a consultant, you deal in advice. You are an important guide for companies looking to expand, invest, or establish change. You deliver your expert knowledge and guidance to areas such as general management, business to business negotiations, investment potential, or process implementation across multiple departments—or even over international borders. You are a natural negotiator and ensure all parties are satisfied, meeting the needs and goals of your client as well as keeping up with targets set by your employer, as an agent, or your own, as a freelance consultant.

SENIOR BRAND MANAGER

Successful branding is more than just making a creative impact. As a brand manager, you expertly advise according to brand values, communication and coordinate departments to ensure goals are met, and execute on-point marketing that resonates with your target customers. You are a central component to cross-departmental collaboration for in-house brand management or external management of B2B or B2C clients. You have a keen eye and deep understanding of what it takes to create, market, and expand a successful brand, while keeping budgets, timing, and company goals in check.

I've always had a knack and passion for solving challenges and problems – that's why I've chosen a career in project management. I wanted to pursue an MBA to develop my project management skills and gain more industry knowledge, but I also wanted to do that without compromising my current job.

IU's online MBA programme was the best choice for me not only for its affordability, but it gives me a lot of flexibility in creating my own weekly study schedule. This is especially important as I juggle my job on the side.

I can learn at my own pace and the online tools IU provides, particularly video lectures and interactive eBooks with easy-to-understand and brief module, help me make the most of the time I have for studying.

“Flexibility is key for me. I wait for no one.”

ON-CAMPUS OR ONLINE?

WHY NOT BOTH

Like the flexibility of studying online, but still want to experience student life in Germany? Our ON-CAMPUS STUDY MODEL lets you enjoy a mix of both online and on-campus studies with a great deal of flexibility. This gives you the perfect opportunity to live in and explore Germany while you earn an accredited degree at one of the country's leading distance learning universities.

If you complete your study programme on campus, you can also apply for an 18-month post study visa. This means you can remain in Germany after graduation and look for a job to kickstart your global career.

STUDY WITH OTHERS

Attend classroom lectures 2 to 3 times a week and collaborate in small learning groups.

2-4 INTAKES PER YEAR

Study three modules per intake and sit for exams when you've completed them.

DIGITAL STUDY TOOLS

Have 24/7 online access to interactive scripts, presentations, AI-powered teaching, and lecture videos.

Start online, Join us on campus later

There's no need to put your dreams on hold if you can't be on campus yet. You'll still get access to our diverse range of innovative digital learning tools and online platform, which means that YOU CAN START LEARNING ONLINE, NO MATTER WHERE YOU ARE.

Whether you're looking to benefit from reduced tuition fees, or you still need to wrap things up back at home, you'll have the option to join us in Germany only when you're ready. All you need to do is decide which campus you want to study at: Berlin or Bad Honnef.

Study and live in the heart of Germany

LIVE IT UP IN VIBRANT, METROPOLITAN BERLIN

Berlin is youthful, hip, artistic – and the IU Berlin campus is situated right in the heart of it all. It offers peaceful study areas when you need to concentrate, and proximity to a wide range of restaurants, malls, and bars when you need to unwind.

We do not offer on-campus accommodation in Berlin, but our Admissions Team can share some platforms where you can search for a place in the city.

SOAK IN THE SIGHTS AND HISTORY IN BAD HONNEF

Study on the idyllic grounds of the historical St. Anno Park in Bad Honnef, a pretty spa town just a 30-minute train ride from Cologne and Bonn. The IU Bad Honnef campus is equipped with state-of-the-art learning facilities and offers sports clubs and societies as well as tons of culinary options.

Student accommodation is available on campus; you can rent a room in one of the six blocks of modern shared flats and live with other IU students.

STUDENT FEATURE: KUNAL SAIGAL (ON-CAMPUS MBA IN FINANCE, INDIA)

KNOWLEDGE KNOWS NO BOUNDARIES

As an Indian who was born and raised across 3 continents, I was especially drawn to IU's global network of students from 153+ countries and its international faculty. I wanted to expand my knowledge on finance and management, having worked in various finance roles.

I chose to pursue an MBA at IU because of its practical modules, competitive tuition fees, and post-study visa option. Working and studying in Germany has also taught me the importance of proper work-life balance so I can reach my personal and professional goals more effectively.

When I was invited to give a guest lecture in the IU Corporate Finance module, I discovered a new passion in sharing knowledge and expertise to a room of curious minds. Now I'm working towards getting a doctorate degree so I can become a professor and pass on my knowledge someday.

Kunal Saigal with IU Professor Dr. Florian Hummel

“Being in a classroom surrounded by intelligent, curious, and diverse streams of thought was highly rewarding.”

YOUR IU SUPPORT

WE'RE ROOTING FOR YOU FROM DAY 1

Your success is our success, and we're here to help you achieve your dreams. From the moment you contact us right through to your graduation day, you'll have our full, dedicated support.

They'll help you make the best choice for your future, assist you with financing options, and guide you through the application process.

“I help prospective students figure out which study program best suits them and provide all the information they need including our on-campus options. I also assist them in planning a flexible study journey so they can maximise learning while working full-time.”

– Mark Appiah, Student Advisor

STUDY COACHES

Having a tough time dealing with the stress of your studies, can't motivate yourself or struggling to find a rhythm? Don't worry, it's completely normal. Check out our study tips and helpful materials in the Study Coaching section of myCampus. If you still need one-on-one help, you can still set up a call with our Study Coaches.

“The online study world can be quite overwhelming and intimidating to students. I help them with individual sessions on topics like time management, learning strategies, goal setting and stress management. And sometimes they are just longing for an encouraging, friendly chat from human to human, and that is what we are here for.”

– Nina Berzbach, Study Coach

STUDENT OFFICE

Being a new student can feel a little overwhelming sometimes, so it's important to have someone by your side, to answer any questions you might have. That's where the IU Student Office comes in: to help you with all of the organisational aspects of your student life. FAQs

WHAT ADMISSION DOCUMENTS DO I NEED TO PREPARE?

You'll need to show proof of English language skills (only for on-campus studies; online students are exempt), your highest academic certificate, and a tabular CV with your professional experience (depending on your chosen study programme).

WHAT IS PROOF OF ENGLISH SKILLS?

If you've completed previous studies in English, you don't need to provide this. Otherwise, you can prove your English proficiency level through one of the following:

- TOEFL (min. 80 points)
- IELTS (min. Level 6)
- Duolingo English test (min. 95 points)
- Cambridge Certificate (min. B grade overall)

The Duolingo English test is available online (45–60 mins) and you will receive certified results within 2 days. Alternatively, you can also enrol in our free online English Courses – simply reach out to our Study Advisors.

When I was a child, I would often go to the pool with my parents and eventually joined a swim club where my love for swimming started. At age 7, I started swimming more professionally and participated in competitions. And after years of hard work, I finally made it to the German swim team in the Tokyo Olympics.

When I first found out about the option of studying online, I looked at different online universities, and was won over by IU's flexibility. I decided to study Digital Business because I always wanted to go in the direction of economics and in the fourth semester, you have the option to choose and dive into an area that you personally like more.

My online studies are easy to combine with swimming practices because it is completely free of time and location restraints. The same goes for the exams: I can take them online 24/7. When I was preparing for the Olympics, I took some of my digital study materials along with me.

“The great flexibility lets me study easily between trainings and workouts.”

“Even though I study online, I am in constant contact with my fellow students.”

MY TOP 3 TIPS FOR DEALING WITH CHALLENGES:

- 1 Set clear goals so you know what you're working towards.
- 2 Make a plan and structure your work
- 3 Believe in yourself and trust in your strengths.
